FRAUD-based Notice of Eviction

As noted in the below report, the Perpetrators followed through of the FRAUDULENT foreclosure sale of Mr. Young's residence which he shares with his fiancée, Leah Krier and toddler son, Jackson Young. Mr. Young has made it clear the foreclosure is a FRAUD, and that he will NOT under any circumstances vacate the residence that he rightfully owns. Accordingly, any foreclosure sale would be deemed a fraudulent conveyance and therefore null and void. This would explain the artificially low bid – the true market value of Mr. Young's condominium is $525,000, based on recent sales of the same size and type unit in Meadowmont Village. [See next page for important NOTICE.]

Exhibit XIV

FRAUD-based Notice of Eviction

The eviction notice issued by David Warren of Poyner & Spruill, on behalf of Paragon Commercial Bank further illustrates what MONSTERS the Perpetrators truly are. As noted below, they originally tried to render Mr. Young and his new young family homeless just before Thanksgiving; however, an error on their part foiled those plans. They are now targeting their eviction plans for some time after the New Year.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Since Paragon Commercial Bank's foreclosure and related sale of Mr. Young's residence has been exposed beyond all doubt to be an egregious instance of CRIMINAL FRAUD, and Mr. Young remains the rightful owner, he is within his rights to use deadly force to protect his family and property should anyone trespass.

Note: As usual, there is a significant gap from the date and receipt of correspondence from P&S.
